DISTSS Forum: Disability and Sexuality Forum

Forum Overview

Providing support to meet the individual needs of people with a disability in the area of sexuality has long been a topic of debate.

This forum explores policy expectations, barriers for people with a disability and available resources.

Forum content will include:

- Barriers and issues facing people with disabilities in the area of sexuality and suggestions on how disability service providers can respond to these issues
- Overview of DHS policy on human sexuality
- Insight into the issues faced by service providers who are called on to respond to the expressed desire of people with a disability to access the sex industry.
- Resources available

Keynote speakers

- Dr George Taleperos: An academic and consultant who has a PhD in sexuality. His presentation style is both challenging and entertaining.
- Two sex workers: Both sex workers (male/female) will provide a personal insight into the sex industry and their experiences in working with people with a disability.
